

National History Day 2019: Primary Sources

Library of Congress: The largest digital record of U.S. History.

<https://www.loc.gov/>

American Memory:

From the Library of Congress archives, American Memory provides a digital record of American History. Contains manuscripts, prints, photographs, posters, maps, sound recordings, motion pictures, books and pamphlets pertaining to U.S. history and cultures.

<http://memory.loc.gov/ammem/index.html>

National Archives:

From the U.S. National Archives, site provides a comprehensive collection of U.S. documents including letters, photographs, video/audio recordings, drawings, maps, treaties and other material from U.S. history.

<https://www.archives.gov/>

Our Documents:

From the U.S. National Archives, site provides images and information on 100 milestone documents in U.S. history.

<https://www.ourdocuments.gov/content.php?flash=false&page=milestone>

World Digital Library:

Developed by the U.S. Library of Congress and in partnership with Universities and archives of other countries, site contains significant primary source materials from other countries and cultures.

Famous Trials:

From the Kansas City Law School at the University of Missouri, site provides a comprehensive collection of materials relating to famous trials, from Socrates to Moussaoui (9/11 trial). Includes original essays, images, primary documents, maps, transcript excerpts, video clips, court decisions and other materials.

<http://www.famous-trials.com/>

German Propaganda Archive:

From Calvin College, site provides a collection of translated propaganda materials from Nazi and East German eras. Includes speeches, articles, pamphlets, photographs, posters and other materials.

<https://research.calvin.edu/german-propaganda-archive/ww2era.htm#Antisem>

Life Magazine Photo Archive:

Hosted by Google, site provides access to millions of photographs taken by LIFE Magazine from 1750s to present. Photos include bibliographic information.

<http://images.google.com/hosted/life>